Now that the "Big match" is behind us, it is back to the regular fare. That is not to say that each Canon league match is not treated by the team as a "Big match". Just as much work goes into these games as in the Spurs game. It is easier, however, to get the adrenalin going for such an important match but a little harder for the league games.

That's where you the supporters come in. You gave marvellous support to the lads at both of the Spurs games. This raised the team to greater efforts. Now perhaps you can help raise the team in the league matches. That support from the terraces is a vital part in the team doing well. The team has started to settle down. Colin and the lads feel that there has been a steady improvement which should continue. Let's get behind them and try and see that the improvement continues. The team needs your support just as much as you need a successful team.

A lot of new people came to the Spurs game and I hope that many of them will continue to come to our league games. Regular supporters will have the support of Lincoln City a fact clearly shown when the regular supporters had the opportunity to seeing the Spurs game at normal prices.

John Platt (Goalkeeper). When Republic of Ireland 'keeper Jim McDonagh moved to Notts County, John McGovern turned to near neighbours Bury and signed up former Oldham Athletic No. 1 John Platt. Born in Ashton, John had seven seasons at Boundary Park before his move to Bury.

Simon Farnworth (Goalkeeper). Coached enthusiastically by Charlie Wright, Simon has been waiting in the wings for his first team break for a couple of seasons.

Gerry McElhinney (Defender). Signed from Distillery at the beginning of the 80/81 season, a former Gaelic footballer and amateur boxer, who made his debut for the Wanderers soon after signing. An aggressive, enthusiastic defender who just failed to make the Northern Ireland Cup squad.

Ray Deakin (Defender). A left full back who can also play in midfield, Ray joined the Wanderers in the summer of 1982 on a free transfer from Port Vale. Began his career with Everton.

Neil Berry (Defender). International Youth honours with Scotland launched Neil into what promises to be a first class career.

Eric Snookes (Defender). A close season signing from Rochdale where he spent five seasons, Eric is a defender John McGovern had been keeping tabs on for some time. The Birmingham born blonde full back started his career with Preston and had spells at Crewe and Southport.

Peter Valentine (Defender). Peter exchanged places during the summer with former Wanderers' skipper Paul Jones who joined Huddersfield. Crossing the Pennines brought a fresh challenge for the promising young central defender.

Brian Borrows (Defender/ Midfield). A regular full back berth at Everton in the First Division brought Brian to the attention of a number of clubs last season, Wanderers stepping in just before the transfer deadline, signing the Liverpool youngster for a modest fee. Eight appearances last season in Bolton colours were all in midfield showing the versatility of this promising young player.

John McGovern (Midfield). John was appointed Player/Manager in June '82. One of the games most respected players, he has won League Championship honours with Derby County and Nottingham Forest — whom he also led as captain to two European Cup and two Football League cup successes.

Warren Joyce (Midfield). Son of club coach Walter, the former Blackburn and Burnley defender, Warren got his chance in midfield last season. A county cricketer at colts level and a rugby union schoolboy tourist makes Warren an all round sportsman.

Steve Thompson (Midfield). Three appearances all away from home, was Steve's taste of first team action last season. Operates wide in midfield but likes to home in on goal with his powerful shooting.

Neil Redfearn (Midfield). It was impossible to ignore Neil's talent last season and when John McGovern was looking for someone to slot into his own midfield position when he was injured, Neil got the job making his debut, still only 17, at Rotherham. Enthusiastic and packing a fierce shot, Neil made 10 first team appearances last season.

Jeff Chandler (Striker). A livewire winger with an abundance of skill and control. Jeff cost Wanderers a modest five figure sum when he signed from Leeds United in October 1981. The Hammersmith born lad, who began his League career with Blackpool has won International recognition with the Republic of Ireland.

Wayne Foster (Striker). A former local schoolboy, Foster came onto the Wanderers' scene in the 1981/82 season and commanded a regular place in the attack. Recognised at representative level he got his first England Youth cap in Scotland in a European Championship qualifier.

Steve Saunders (Striker). A cruel sequence of injuries robbed Steve of his chance of a first team place last season. But it won't be long before this livewire attacker makes his League bow.

Simon Rudge (Striker). Simon won the hearts of the Bolton fans with his terrier-like qualities last season. Three goals from 21 appearances in a side struggling for goals was enough to suggest we'll see a lot more of this diminutive striker from Warrington.

Tony Caldwell (Striker). Record breaking scoring feats in Non-League football meant Tony was sure to attract attention sooner or later from one of the North West League clubs. Bolton moved in and signed the self employed electrician on part time professional terms from Horwich R.M.I.

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHERS TO LINCOLN CITY FOOTBALL CLUB

100 YEARS OF LINCOLN CITY

by MAURICE BURTON

Sports Editor, Lincolnshire Echo, Lincoln

When we last discussed the history of Lincoln City in this series of articles, the club had completed almost 40 years in existence, and were poised to move into the Third Division (N) as new founder members after a chequered career in and out of the Second Division.

It was in 1921-22 season that the Third Division (N) was formed, and it provided a lifeline for clubs like City who were never certain that they could establish themselves in the First or Second Divisions.

Indeed, City have never played in the First Division, and in the Second they never rose higher than fifth in the table.

But, from 1923-24, two years after their entry into the Third Division (N), Lincoln made definite headway.

They were in the top six for five seasons, and eventually gained top place in 1931-32, so returning to the Second Division.

In his book "Cock o' the North", an account of City's career in the Northern Section, "Benny Dix", the Echo's football writer of the time, recalls that goalkeeper Dan McPhail came from Portsmouth, and Alan Hall, a centre forward, came from Bradford City.

Both turned out to be good business for City, for no fee was involved and Hall ended up as the leading scorer in the Northern Section with 41 goals.

The story of the championship season, as recorded by "Benny Dix", will make the bones of my next article in this series, and it makes good reading.

That close season was notable for one major departure from the club . . . Billy Dinsdale, of "Give it to Dinny" fame, was given a free transfer.

I have already told in the Echo the story of how Dinsdale and the other players went to a cinema on an away trip, and the particularly haunting plea of the heroine in distress when she cried "My baby, what shall I do with my baby?" . . . and the cinema was rocked by 10 young voices yelling "Give it to Dinny."

"Benny Dix" tells another story which summed up the admiration Lincoln fans felt for Dinsdale.

When the news got out that he had been released, he was stopped in the High Street by a man who had drunk well, but not too wisely.

"They ought to be blooming well shot" he told Dinsdale. Feigning ignorance, the City star asked who.

"The blooming directors. Come an' have a drink" was the reply.

"I don't drink" said Dinsdale.

"Well, will you have a cigar?", asked the reveller. Again Dinsdale turned it down with the answer "No thanks, I don't smoke."

Not to be put off, the gentleman clearly wanted to show his appreciation of the footballer. "Well, have a shilling" he said.

Dinsdale gently shook his head and moved on . . . and the last time I heard of him he was living in the Darlington area.

But that's a long time back, and perhaps the man whose legend lives on over 50 years after he finished playing might not have survived until now.

(more in a later programme).

BALLOON RACE

Many of you here today will have taken part in the Junior Red Imps Centenary Balloon Race on Lincoln Cornhill in August.

The results of the race are now known and although none of the balloons reached foreign soil they did travel a long way down the country at high speed. One balloon which was sent from the Cornhill at 9-30 a.m., landed in Battersea Park, London at 12-30 p.m. on the same day!

The top prize winners were Mr. D. Ross and Mrs. A. Houlston. Their balloons were found in Ukfield, Sussex and Crawley, Sussex respectively.

The Juniors will be holding another race in the Spring and we hope you will all take part.

IMPS NEWS

by MAURICE BURTON, Sports Editor, Lincolnshire Echo

There is always a good deal of interest when former players of any club are mentioned, and Lincoln City is no exception to the general rule.

In every town or city where League football flourishes, there are always some who have retained their interest in the club they played for during their football careers; but many of them simply move away, and eventually one loses trace of them.

At City's home match with Spurs on Wednesday night, it was not surprising to see such as Brian Heward, Andy Graver and Derek Clark from years gone by. Johnny Garvie, who was playing for City when I first came to live in Lincoln in 1955, was also there, and from the Colin Murphy era, I saw Tony Cunningham and David Carr.

The point of all this is that City are making a determined bid to find as many of their ex-players as possible, with the idea of forming an ex-City Players' Association.

The plan is the brainchild of City director Derek Overton, who tells me that he feels it would be possible to devote a section of the club to this "old boys'" association.

"We feel that their role could be very much used at the ground for public relations, and we are sure the ex-players will have ideas of their own in this direction," says Mr. Overton.

City feel that this could be only for the good of the club and of the players concerned, and he has himself taken personal responsibility for trying to see his new association off the ground.

Accordingly, he has called a meeting of all ex-City players in the directors' guest room at Sincil Bank for next Tuesday, 8th November, when he hopes the former players will turn up to elect a chairman and committee, and to take part in a general discussion. In the meantime, anyone who knows of the whereabouts of any ex-City player who might be interested in taking part are asked to contact Mr. Overton, c/o Lincoln City Football Club, Sincil Bank, Lincoln.

While the team got their plaudits for a wonderful performance against Spurs . . . and how they deserved them . . . spare a thought for the unsung heroes of Sincil Bank on such an occasion.

No, not the management team of Colin Murphy and John Pickering, who also deserve all the praise that comes their way. I am referring to the people whose job it is to ensure the smooth running of events, selling the tickets and generally making certain that there are no big hiccoughs to upset the players. Take a bow Phil Hough, and the office staff. You deserve it. And, while I'm on the subject, doesn't the pitch look great these days. Well done, Barry.

GARY STRODDER

Interviewed by Judith Vickers

Football is Gary's life and everything he does revolves round training and playing the game.

He was born in Mirfield, Huddersfield and celebrated his 18th birthday on April Fools Day this year. His father Colin, is an ex-professional footballer having played centre half for Huddersfield and Halifax before joining Boston United where, at the time of Gary's birth he had the misfortune to break a leg and had to retire from the game. His dad comes to watch every match where Gary is in the squad and usually brings with him his mum and youngest sister Carol.

When Gary was 4 years old the family moved to Leeds and he started school at Talbot Primary school. At 9 he went to Allerton Grange Middle school where he immediately became a member of the school football team playing at centre half. During his first year at Allerton Grange he joined Leeds Celtic U-11 Sunday League team and by the last year he was in the Leeds City Boys team.

Gary went on to Allerton Grange High school and played for the school team, Leeds City Boys and Yorkshire Amateurs (with whom Leeds Celtic had amalgamated) and has 'hundreds' of trophies from these teams. In his last year at school he was approached by Lenny Lawrence and came down to Sincil Bank for a trial match when he was 15 years old. He heard nothing more from them for a year during which time he had made the Sunday League representative side (Leeds and District) and West Yorkshire U-19's schools team. Then Lincoln went back to him and he came down as a schoolboy in the holidays though he didn't sign schoolboy forms. He also trained on a Thursday night with Huddersfield Town and had games for Grimsby Town and Everton's 'A' team. He came down to play for Lincoln Intermediates and signed as an apprentice on leaving school. Since then he has quickly graduated to the first team squad and signed as a professional in April this year.

He was never interested in anything else at school though after a while said he did enjoy P.T. All his time was taken up with football either on the field for one of his teams or in the street aided and abetted by his dad and mates. His parents have always been behind him and encouraged him all the way, though his dad wanted him to get a qualification of some kind when he left school and his mum still has reservations after seeing Colin's career cut short with little to show for it.

After lodging at the hostel for most of his apprenticeship he spent a while lodging with us and did what he admits to liking most apart from playing football "resting up" — listening to pop music, watching T.V. or kicking a football around the garden (and letting someone else fetch it back from next door at regular intervals!). He now lives with Chris Moyses and his family and has a regular girl-friend, Allison.

He thinks it "great" being in the first team and doesn't mind sitting on the bench as sub as he feels part of the game but he hates having to watch a match from the stands.

There are three matches that he particularly enjoyed playing. The first was against Mid-dlesbrough in a reserve League Cup Final when there was a crowd of 5,000 at Ayresome Park. Lincoln went down 2-0 that day but Gary remembers the game for the crowd and for David Hodgson who played on that day and who is now at Liverpool.

To anyone who knows Gary it goes without saying that his idols are at Elland Road having followed Leeds from being a young school boy. If he could juggle with time he would love the chance to play against the Leeds United of Don Revie's day and 'rub shoulders' with Peter Lorimer, Alan Clarke, Paul Madeley, Mick Jones, Johnny Giles, Paul Reaney and Terry Cooper.

His own ambitions are quite simply to play football and be successful wherever he plays. Professionally he looks on John Pickering as having the biggest influence on his game but of course dad gets the most credit.
